

“How to Work with a Title Company” (excerpted from)

By: Joanne Cassidy, Esq. (Houston, Texas)

Remember that the title company does not represent the buyer or seller, but rather acts as an escrow agent, holding the earnest money and documents in escrow until it is required to disburse the funds according to the terms of the contract.